

Please do not change our law. We like it the way it is. Our state should be looked upon as an example of what to do to keep these people from invading our privacy